Nine Gems of Ramadasa's compositions

With notations in English

Compiled by:

Sangita Kalanidhi Nedunuri Krishnamurthy

Foreword

Smt Kapilavayi Lalitha Vijayakumar is a student of classical vocal music, of Dr Seshulatha. Lalitha sings Annamayya and Ramadasu compositions in a sweet voice with devotional fervour. She introduced her father Sri N Krishna Mohan to me, the Managing Director of Sri Chakra Cements, a great philanthropist who takes deep interest in our traditional music. Above all, he is an ardent Rama bhakta.

One fine morning, Sri Krishna Mohan called on me and sang one rare composition of Tyagaraja, 'Sita lakshmana sahitam' – that I had set to tune. It was a pleasant surprise when he told me that he had learnt it listening to my CD. He is a sincere and honest music lover.

Our common interests being Rama bhakti and Sangitarchanam, quite naturally, we soon became good friends. Long since, it has been my desire to popularize Bhakta Ramadasa's compositions, which were once in vogue in every Telugu household and also in temples, in the Bhajana Sampradaya. Sharing my deep concern, Sri Krishna Mohan published 54 compositions of Bhakta Ramadasa, for which I wrote notations – some with old tunes and some that I tuned. All these compositions are now being sung by many in various concerts, as well as in the Bhakta Ramadasa Jayanti Festival at the abode of Lord Rama, built by our own Bhakta Ramadasa, on the pious banks of River Gowtami.

This annual event Bhakta Ramadasa Jayanti conducted under my guidance, sponsored in a big way by Sri Krishna Mohan over the past 3 years, has grown to become a popular and much awaited music festival, thanks to SVBC telecasting it all over the globe. Pahi Rama Prabho, where I taught these compositions in the Bhakti channel also contributed in a big way in popularizing these compositions.

Every year, Tyagaraja Aradhana Festival in Tiruvaiyar starts with 'Tyagaraja Pancha Ratna Seva'. Annamacharya Festivals followed suit with 'Annamayya Saptagiri Sankirtana Seva'. Bhadrachala Ramadasa Jayanti Utsavalu is also being started with group renditions of Bhakta Ramadasa Navaratnalu (Nine Gems of Ramadasa's compositions). This Ramadasa Navaratna Seva has also gained popularity, spreading Rama bhakti far and wide.

I sincerely appreciate the divine service of Sri Krishna Mohan, who readily undertook the printing of Ramadasa Navaratnalu with notations in Telugu and English, as per my wish. I pray to Sri Hanuman Sita Lakshmana Sahita Sri Ramachandra Swamy to bless Sri N Krishna Mohan, Smt Lalitha Vijayakumar, and all their family members with long and peacefully happy life in service of our traditional music and propagation of Rama bhakti. I believe strongly that all the people who sing and listen to these Ramadasa Navaratnamala will be blessed with Sri Rama Anugraham.

Rama jayam Sri rama jayam.
